- * Parents As Partner Series: Involvement
Cochise SDA Christian School prioritizes providing high-quality education and value for our students. The best way to support student success is by partnering with parents. In our "Parents As Partners" series, we will be sharing our program standards for parental involvement, including ways for parents to participate in the classroom and at school events and support for learning at home. This week, we will be focusing on the importance of parental involvement. We encourage parents to volunteer in the classroom, at events, and on the school board. Volunteering at the school can be a rewarding experience for parents and an essential part of Christian education. To find out more for your child or grandchild, friend or neighbor, come visit, Julibee Roberts / jolly12bee@outlook.com / (520) 483-8027.
